

LTC Delisa L. Hernandez
Product Manager
Acquisition Business

LTC Hernandez leads a team of approximately 100 contractor and government staff members involved in developing and deploying Information Technology products and services for the Army Acquisition Community.

Recent accomplishments include deploying the Army Acquisition Dashboard, which provides visibility into the health and status of the Assistant Secretary of the Army for Acquisition, Logistics and Technology enterprise portfolios and programs, the Army Acquisition Workforce Dashboard, a Business Intelligence tool that provides Army Acquisition leadership visibility into military and civilian personnel certification and training activities, and the recent transformation of the Army Acquisition Business Enterprise Portal

(AABEP). The AABEP is the centralized access point for Army Acquisition stakeholders to find Acquisition business capabilities, data and other information.

In 1993, LTC Hernandez graduated cum laude with a Bachelor of Science degree in Electrical Engineering from Prairie View A&M University, Prairie View, Texas. As a Distinguished Military Graduate, she earned a Regular Army commission as a Second Lieutenant in the Signal Corps. In 2001, she earned a Master of Education degree in Statistics from Rutgers University, New Brunswick, N.J.

Her military education includes the Signal Officer Basic Course, Signal Officer Advance Course, Combined Arms Service and Staff School, Acquisition Basic Course, and Command and General Staff College.

LTC Hernandez' awards and decorations include the Defense Meritorious Service Medal, Meritorious Service Medal with four Oak Leaf Clusters (OLCs), Army Commendation Medal with two OLCs, U.S. Army Achievement Medal, Joint Meritorious Unit Award, National Defense Service Medal with one OLC, Iraq Campaign Medal, Global War on Terrorism Service Medal, Korea Defense Service Medal, Humanitarian Service Medal, U.S. Army Service Ribbon, and the Overseas Service Ribbon.
